Boy Scout Troop 301 Cobra Patrol Claims Second Place in Sam Houston Area Council First Aid Meet
 by Jennifer Dolcefino

Competing against 19 Boy Scout Patrols from troops in 11 districts Troop 301 Cobra Patrol won second place in the Sam Houston Area Council First Aid meet. The First Aid meet allows youth members of the Boy Scouts of America to improve their first aid skills in a fun, competitive, and realistic manner. The Scouts are given descriptions of real-life first aid scenarios and judged on analysis, presentation, and correct response to them. Only two patrols from each district in the Council were allowed to participate in the Council First Aid Meet. In the Tomahawk District First Aid Meet, Troop 301 Cobra Patrol competed against 20 Boy Scout Patrols from 15 troops and took first place. Troop 301 is chartered by Sugar Creek Baptist Church. Scoutmaster, Brian Turner.
